

Privacy Policy

1. Definitions and General Statement

Tÿ Elis and its website www.tyelis.org.uk (hereafter referred to as "we", "us", "our") recognise the importance of protecting the privacy of Personal Information collected about our Users (hereafter referred to as "you", "your"). We do not sell or otherwise disclose any individually identifiable Personal Information about you without your express and informed consent, unless required by law.

2. Collection

We collect statistical non-personally identifiable information from you in the form of usage data (for example, length of session, pages viewed, geographical location, etc.) for use as stated in the paragraph on "Usage" below.

3. Cookies

"Cookies" are industry standard, non-personally identifiable pieces of information that are temporarily transferred to your computer to enhance your viewing and shopping experience. In accordance with EU regulations we can confirm that on this website we do not use cookies.

4. Usage

We believe in protecting your privacy. To that end, we use "opt-in" collection methods wherever feasible, where you specifically choose to send us your information for specific, stated purposes. If you ever feel you have received an email from us in error, or wish to unsubscribe from an e-mail service you've signed up for, please contact us at info@tyelis.org.uk.

We use statistical, non-identifiable user information in the aggregate (such as geographical location, pages viewed, browser type, etc.) for improving the usability of our website. We use Personal Information such as your e-mail address to provide you with specifically requested "opt-in" services, such as e-mail news about our Site. We reserve the right to, on rare occasions, but when necessary to send important e-mail announcements about www.tyelis.org.uk to all Users, such as but not limited to, changes in services, changes of terms, or major site upgrades.

5. Children (Minors)

Children (Minors) should always ask their parents or guardians for permission before providing any Personal Information to us. You must be 18 years or older, as required by law, to transact business and purchase items from our site. We expressly adhere to all laws and policies related to children's privacy.

6. Security

We do not collect Personal Information through our website. We do make use of third party software e.g. Mail Chimp, Facebook, Twitter and Survey Monkey. Please visit their websites for their privacy policies.

While we make all reasonable attempts to secure your Personal Information, we will not be held responsible for any involuntary breach of our security, and any actions by third parties resulting there from, such as, but not limited to computer or Internet hacking, equipment malfunction, acts of God, war, civil unrest, and any other causes beyond our reasonable control.
